DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn. Upon further consideration, it is the position of the Examiner that a huge oversight was done in the last office action and Applicant's specification does to have support for the limitation "consisting essentially of." All previously made rejections are withdrawn and the 112 rejection is set forth below.

2. The only pending claim at this time in the prosecution is claim 4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant's amendments to the claims have been entered (previously), however the Examiner does not believe that Applicant has proper support for the amendment of a "consisting essentially of," for the limitation required for the wipe. It is the position of the Examiner that the reference to Applicant's specification that was originally submitted alludes the skilled artisan to believe that Applicant is actually trying to create a multilayered wipe. Further there is still no chemistry claimed as to what the components/composition of the cationic or anionic components are. Therefore, this claim limitation is considered new matter and is rejected.
